Board trims referendum bid

Antioch business and civic leaders met the new owner and manager of the Antioch Lumber Company at a reception, Wednesday, November 14, at Lorenz's Smart Country House. The company was recently purchased by Rittenhouse and Embree, Co., whose name it will bear after January 1. Senior citizens, disabled granted tax rebate

Legislation passed recently by the Illinois legislature grants a rebate for property tax paid by qualified senior citizens and disabled persons. Those who rent, rather than own a home, may also qualify for a refund, since one-fourth of their rent is considered to be for tax on the property. The legislation is popularly known as the "circuit breaker."

Applications for a rebate on 1972 property tax, paid in 1973, must be filed before December 17, 1973. Forms are available from the Illinois Department of Revenue. An official in the Chicago office of the department stated that persons may phone that office (641-2150) and request that the forms be mailed. Antioch Village Clerk Marilyn Sterbenz is also seeking to obtain a supply of the forms for distribution at the Village Hall.

To qualify for a cash grant for property tax or rent assistance:

- (a) You must be 65 years of age or over on or before December 31, 1972

or

- (b) You must be unable to work due to a physical or mental disability which has lasted or may be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months.

- 2) You must have lived in an Illinois residence during 1972.
- 3) You must be living in Illinois when the claim is filed.
- 4) You must have accrued property tax or paid rent during 1972.
- 5) Your total household income must be less than $10,000 for 1972.

Those who meet these qualifications are advised to complete and file a Claim for Grant form, from which the department will compute the amount of the rebate to be received. The rebate will be paid directly to the qualifying claimant and will not be applied to property taxes or rent.

For a couple living together, only one may submit a claim for the grant; however, the combined income of the husband and wife must be included in household income, and the total amount of the property tax or rent paid will be used as a basis for the grant. Persons owning a home with someone not their spouse, or those renting out part of their home, must prorate the taxes or rent paid. Persons in nursing homes may file a claim if they

Voters in Antioch Grade School District No. 34 will be asked to approve an increase in the district's Education Fund tax rate of 25 cents per $100 of assessed valuation in a December 1 referendum. This is a decrease from the 40 cents to which Board members had tentatively agreed in a special meeting October 23.

At the regular monthly Board meeting, November 13, when formal action was taken calling the referendum, Board members re-considered their tentative agreement and decided to seek only a 25 cent increase. Superintendent Henry Meyer indicated that the recent reassessment of property values was a factor in the Board action.

Also influencing the Board, according to Meyer, was the State's new formula, a district will receive a larger amount of State aid if it demonstrates a greater local effort to provide good schools. "Local effort" is determined by the rate at which the citizens agree to tax themselves. Thus the tax rate increase, if approved, will qualify District 34 for more money from the State.

Based on the preliminary total of the new assessment figures for the district, an increase of 25 cents per $100 would yield about $127,000 in new revenue. In addition, however, the district should get slightly more than $34,000 greater State aid, according to the new formula, if the higher tax rate is approved.

Consequently, Meyer reported, if the December 1 vote is successful, the programs cut from the budget in the Spring of 1972 could all be restored for the 1974-75 school year. Meyer indicated that, because of inflation and the indebtedness of the district, it might not be possible to fund all of the re-instated programs to a comparative level as before. He said that a lesser amount might be available for supplies, library materials and capital items than when the programs were discontinued. However, he stated that all the programs could be put back into the budget at a minimal level. Additional revenue not needed for debt reduction, then, could be applied to improve the programs re-instated, Meyer added.

The December 1 referendum is not directly related to the building plans that have been under discussion by the Board for over a year. Because of uncertainties about how much growth to expect in the area, or how soon it will come, the

Evaluations concern High School Board

Evaluation occupied much of the time of the Antioch Community High School Board at their regular monthly meeting, November 15. A major effort is underway to complete a State-required evaluation of the school goals.

Superintendent Warren Polley reported on another study conducted November 9. In that project, seven people interviewed teachers and students alike to evaluate the school and to make recommendations for improvement. The eight areas evaluated, ranked in order from "good" to "needs improving", are: personnel, occupational programs, administration, students served, resources utilized, guidance, objectives, and limited number of evaluations. Supt. Polley said that all in all it was a positive report.

In the connection with the evaluation required by the State, the faculty recently held a workshop to determine student goals (those he expects to achieve during high school) and system goals (those the district should strive to accomplish. System goals that they felt are not being achieved are: performance, teacher improvement, more student involvement in establishing school policy, tapping community resources more extensively, a drug program, and an in-service program for teachers to establish procedures in various areas. The next step was to determine student goals by asking the students themselves. This was done last Friday through a random selection of students.

At this point the help of the community is desired to aid in determining student goals. The school administration is looking for community residents willing to give two hours on one designated evening to participate in the evaluation.

This evaluation must be completed and sent to Supt. Bakalis by January 1. Interested persons call Supt. Polley at

Board has light agenda

It is apparently the "slow season" for the Antioch Village Board. Business was conducted Monday night in exactly one hour from gavel to gavel.

A request was forwarded from the new owners of the Antioch Lumber Company for permission to mount a sign on the roof of their building. Building inspector Walt Delaney said that this is apparently in violation of the zoning code and, thus, would require a variance from the Board. Discussion centered finally on the fact that a sign ordinance has been "in the air" for about three years. No action was taken on the request, as Mayor Robert Wilton appointed a Sign Committee to negotiate a solution. Mike Haley will chair the committee, and Ronald Cunningham and Irv Walsh are also members. They are to work with the Planning Commission, also, in hopes of finally drafting a sign ordinance for the Village.

The purchase of a mechanical claw, for use by the fire department and the rescue squad, was authorized, using $3,775 from revenue sharing public safety funds.

Haley proposed that the vehicle license fee for senior citizens be reduced to $1.00. Presently the fee is $6.00 across the board. The other trustees agreed to authorize the attorney to draw up a resolution to this effect. According to the Village Clerk, this will necessitate a slight delay in the issuance of stickers, which normally go on sale December 1. The earliest that action can be taken is December 3.

Cunningham reported that the fire department wants to sell its old pumper, a 1947 model. Bids from prospective

Offer career training at bargain rates

Students from Antioch and 13 other high schools in Lake County have an opportunity for vastly improved vocational education at 60 percent below cost, according to Merv Pilotte, planning director for the proposed Lake County Area Vocational Center. All that's required is that voters support a referendum December 8, agreeing to pay about $5 to $10 a piece for no more than the next five years, Pilotte says.

The money raised from the new tax would pay the local share (40 percent) of constructing and equipping a vocational training facility to serve the 14 participating high school districts. Federal and State funds would cover the remaining 60 percent of the total site, building and equipment cost.

If the referendum is not passed, Pilotte says, each individual district would have to bear the full cost of any additions to their vocational program. They would also have to pay for any building programs made necessary because of overcrowding, which, Pilotte points out, an area center would help to alleviate.

The other alternative is to the high school.

The school finally received delivery of two new busses and the Board decided that the entire fleet of fourteen should be updated for safety's sake. Normally, a bus is kept for seven years, then traded in. The Board decided to replace four more busses and to get the safest ones they can. Howard Bonner pointed out the safety features, good mileage, handling and ride of radial tires. In general, the other Board members were convinced to try a set on some of the new busses. Also, there have not yet been any problems in getting fuel for busses.

The Area Vocational Center referendum was discussed

YOUTH, 17, DIES WHEN STRUCK BY CAR

Jeffrey Rowe, 17, of East Loon Lake, Antioch, died as the result of multiple fracture injuries received when he was struck by a car, Thursday, on Deep Lake Road, north of Grass Lake Road.

Sheriff's deputies reported that Rowe, who was walking home from his job in Lake Villa, was struck from behind by a car driven by 19-year-old Michael DiLabio, of rural Antioch.

DiLabio told the investigator on the scene that he had just passed two other vehicles when his car struck Rowe, who was walking in the southbound lane of the road. The driver apparently did not see the victim, who, according to the sheriff's report, was wearing dark brown slacks and a dark blue jacket. The accident occurred at about 5:45 p.m.

No charges have been filed as a result of the accident.

Funeral services for Jeffrey Rowe, who was a junior at Antioch Community High School, were held Monday, November 19, at Clein-Hanson-Dahlke Funeral Home in Manawa, Wisconsin.

care, cosmetology, printing, and commercial food service.

While new to Lake County, 23 such centers have been built in Illinois within the last seven years, serving 275 school districts. Seventeen more are under construction or being planned.

The major advantage claimed for area career centers is the ability to provide better, more comprehensive career training to a greater number of students at a far lower cost to the individual district. Because the cooperative approach is considered to provide higher quality education, the State and Federal governments offer to pay 60 percent of the initial

School milk price questioned

After much discussion on November 13, the Antioch Grade School Board reached a unanimous decision to hold a referendum asking for an increase of 25 cents per $100 of assessed valuation in the Education Fund tax rate. The Board did question whether to go ahead with the referendum at this time, but in the end decided that something had to be done about re-instating the programs cut from the budget almost two years ago.

Parents will be happy to learn that the price of a carton of milk has been lowered from 5 cents to 3 cents. However, there is a problem with Willow Dale dairies in that they have raised their rates, apparently without notice to the Board. The dairy does have a contract with the Board based on the lower rate. However, it was pointed out that if the bill isn't paid, milk delivery could be curtailed. The Board examined the long-range effects of this and decided that since there may be milk shortages forthcoming, the needs of current customers of the dairy will be satisfied before any new contracts are taken on. So to insure an adequate milk supply for the children, they agreed to pay the bill under protest, with the hope of recovering this extra money in the future.

It appeared that some certified employees of the various schools in District No. 34 wish to participate in custodial duties such as driving busses after school hours. This work would not interfere with their professional duties they told the Board, and the maximum amount of time spent in this endeavor would be four hours. However, the Board established a policy that, "certified personnel shall not work in an uncertified position in District 34 except for summer employment or as a substitute in an emergency."

An architect presented two proposals to the Board related to the Life Safety Survey to up-date the schools. Much of the work needed was centered at the Channel Lake School and included improving acoustics, painting the restrooms and providing for ventilation, relocating the nurse's office and

"Rest and be thankful." How far modern man has strayed from that wise old Scottish counsel! Too often we scurry about our daily affairs, complaining of traffic, the state of the Union, food prices and the like -- never bothering to count our blessings. This Thanksgiving Day, November 22, would be an excellent time to reflect upon the true meaning of life in America and, in so doing, come to a real appreciation of our good fortune.

Thanksgiving is more than a unique American celebration to be observed with parades, roast turkey and speeches. It honors the beginnings of the U.S. and our rich legacy of freedom, won by the blood and sacrifices of the first American settlers and others who came before us. How can anyone breathe the sweet air of freedom and not dedicate themselves to the democratic ideals which make life worth living and upon which this nation was founded? That each of us should be alive and living in the greatest country on Earth is cause enough to give thanks every day of the year. We should never be too busy to "rest and be thankful."

SUBJECT OF IMPEACHMENT

The House of Representatives has moved inexorably toward impeachment of President Nixon by approving a resolution allocating $1 million in additional funds to the House Judiciary Committee. This action will permit the employment of staff personnel who soon will be devoting full time to the 30 House resolutions providing for an impeachment inquiry. Such an inquiry is an obvious prerequisite to the development of Articles of Impeachment which would consist of formal charges upon which the House of Representatives then would be required to vote.

The $1 million voted by the House contemplates a free ranging inquiry without any guidelines or time schedules which the augments staff would be required to follow. According to the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, there will be a Deputy Special Counsel, four assistants, as well as investigators, researchers, computer specialists and many others with authority to consider and report on the numerous charges of wrongdoing alleged against the President of the United States.

A Republican move to assure that at least one third of the allocated funds would be made available to the Republican Members of the Committee was voted down on a strict Party line vote. However, personal assurances from the Chairman of the Committee indicate that the Republicans will have available to them approximately one third of the total allocation. An additional precautionary amendment offered by the Republican minority would have defined the nature and scope of the studies and investigations. This, also, was defeated along Party lines.

When the final vote came, many Republicans joined with their Democratic counterparts in behalf of the resolution, for fear of appearing to oppose a full and fair investigation of the impeachment charges. Indeed, there is almost unanimous support for a legal determination of the validity under the Constitution of the impeachment resolutions as grounds for removing the President from office.

However, the move with its obvious political overtones, has set the stage for an extensive and seemingly determined attack aimed at bringing to the Floor of the U.S. House of Representatives the issue of the impeachment (indictment) of President Richard M. Nixon.

While it seems highly doubtful that a $1 million appropriation is needed to accomplish this purpose, it becomes increasingly evident that an expeditious decision on the issue may be welcomed by friends and foes alike -- of President Nixon.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BE AWARE

Dear Parents & Property Owners:

We should make an effort to stop the costly vandalism in and around our schools.

Such damage as broken windows, clogging drains on roofs, damaging roofs causing leaks, destroying shrubbery, stealing expensive equipment, is very costly. This money is coming from the taxpayer's pocket. This is money that can be more profitably spent on educational materials for our children.

The police department is cooperating 100 percent and some of the vandals have been apprehended and have paid for the damage. However, the Police Department cannot be expected to keep a daily 24 hour vigil on the schools. Therefore, the people in the Antioch School district are asking for your cooperation. When you see activity around our schools that seems questionable, please call the Police and inform them of what you have seen or your suspicions. Your name need not be given and if you voluntarily give your name it will be kept in the strictest confidence. Only through your help can we stop this needless destruction and waste of our tax dollars. Please won't you help?

Sincerely yours

John Mulac
President of the California Subdivision Improvement Assn.

Dear Mr. Rush:

Once again we are privileged to say "THANK YOU" to our many friends in the media for their support of Lions Candy Day for the Blind. The Lions' 21st Annual Candy Day has been concluded and, thanks to the fine publicity received, the citizens of Illinois opened their hearts and pocketbooks to make this the best Candy Day ever.

It would be presumptuous of us to try to improve on the gentle wisdom of the immortal Helen Keller who wrote, more than 50 years ago...

"I appreciate the sweet thought which made you wish to help others. In these troublous times there are constant requests for assistance, and every little help is precious. You have done a good deed. Do another, and then another, and you will sow seeds of happiness in this sad world. This is the way to find gladness and beauty in life."

These words reflect the feelings of many thousands of blind in Illinois whose lives have been brightened by help from the Lions' Candy Day program. If you know of any blind or visually handicapped person who might be helped through your program, please refer him to us.

Most Sincerely,

Norman R. Dahl
Dir. Public Relations

To The Editor:

The recent headlines regarding another referendum for a school tax increase has surprised many of the taxpayers involved.

The last referendum passed was for the high school and was finally passed on the fourth try. This will be we hope, voted down on the first try. From the amount of our tax money (seventy-eight percent) going to the schools involved at the present time we should have the best educated children in Illinois if not in the United States.

Just think a minute and figure that the magnificent total of twenty-two percent goes for the rest of the county and township functions, which number twenty three divisions.

Now that the reassessments have been established let the board think again and cancel the referendum in Antioch township.

Two Senior Citizen Taxpayers
Mr. & Mrs. E.E. Archambault

Editor's Note: The article appearing on page 1 of today's Antioch News may be of interest to senior citizens who find themselves burdened by property taxes.

Dear Mr. Schwartz:

I read a nice letter of thank you from The State Bank and Mr. Preston Reckers thanking you for the publicity given the Cancer Bike-A-Thon in Antioch.

Why is it that the winners of the bikes have not been published? The riders were told to have their money in by November 15th which at that time the winners were to be announced. Now Mr. Reckers informs them they will have to wait until December 15th as some of the riders have not turned in their pledges.

In regard to your letter printed November 7th, how can Mr. Reckers say Lake County had the most successful Bike-A-Thon ever held in the United States when his pledges are not all collected.

I can't understand how adults can expect kids who ride to raise money for cancer, to continue in this effort if the adults, who chairman and run this Bike-A-Thon don't keep their word.

How can a parent tell a child to continue waiting to find out if he has won or not month after month.

When a date is set to award the prizes that date should be kept.

KARL BERNING: A SENATOR'S SCHEDULE IS FULL

THE ANTIOCH NEWS spent a day in Springfield recently, talking to our 32nd District legislators and observing them in action. Each of the men was most cooperative and spent considerable time talking with us concerning his job and issues of particular interest to the people of Antioch. The following article is part of a series on our State lawmakers, to acquaint our readers with them in a non-campaign atmosphere.

(First in series of four)

The State Capitol building in Springfield is a large old edifice. The corridors in the office area behind the State chamber are not brightly lighted, nor freshly painted. The floor of the chamber itself sags in places. (Across the way, the House chamber has been torn out and is being rehabilitated.)

Perhaps this helps explain why the Senate seems to be such a dignified, serene body.

Karl Berning, State Senator from the 32nd District, seems at home here. A man of medium stature, he bears himself with a "senatorial" dignity. A soft-spoken man, his words come slowly, deliberately, thoughtfully.

Berning is a full-time legislator, having no other outside working interests. His activities in pursuit of his job, while not necessarily representative of all legislators, may be viewed as indicative of how an elected representative spends his time.

The picture presented by Congressmen in Washington can be misleading. By such standards, State legislators are woefully understaffed. Of course, they are. At least that is the impression one comes away with from a visit to Springfield. But if Berning and his "staff" are any example, they work to make up the difference.

In Springfield, he is generally in his office by 8:30, earlier if someone desires an appointment. The office is no more than 10 feet square, enough space for the senator's desk, a secretary's desk, book shelf, file cabinet and a small couch for visitors.

Most senators have only one secretary. (Even in this they are more fortunate than their colleagues in the House, who must share one secretary for every three members.)

Berning, as chairman of the Committee on Pensions and Personnel, has an extra staff member at his disposal.

The image presented by much of the "staff" in Springfield is one of youth. Perhaps many of them are working on internships or putting in some time in Springfield before settling down somewhere else. But even with a young, energetic staff, there is not time to do all the things that could or should get done.

Commenting on the value of newspaper articles on the legislators, Berning reveals, "We don't have time to work on news releases, desirable as that would be from the standpoint of promoting Berning personally and more importantly from getting the message (of what we're doing) across to listeners. There just isn't time for that."

When he isn't in Springfield, Berning spends most of his working time in his small district office in Deerfield. There he has another part-time secretary, paid out of his office expense account.

The legislator's office expense appropriation, Berning says, is one of the most misunderstood things in State government. "The impression is left so frequently... that this is ours or we can do with it as we want," he complains.

"That $10,000 is no more realistically listed as part of my income than to say that the county treasurer gets $22,000, plus $200,000 to run his office," Berning says.

The money is intended for the operation of a district office. Out of the $10,000 a lawmaker must pay a secretary, rent for his office, rental of equipment (which cannot be purchased), phone, postage, and other office expenses. And the $10,000 is not available to the legislator in cash. Rather, he and the person providing the service, equipment or supplies must sign vouchers, which are turned over to the State treasurer's office to be paid.

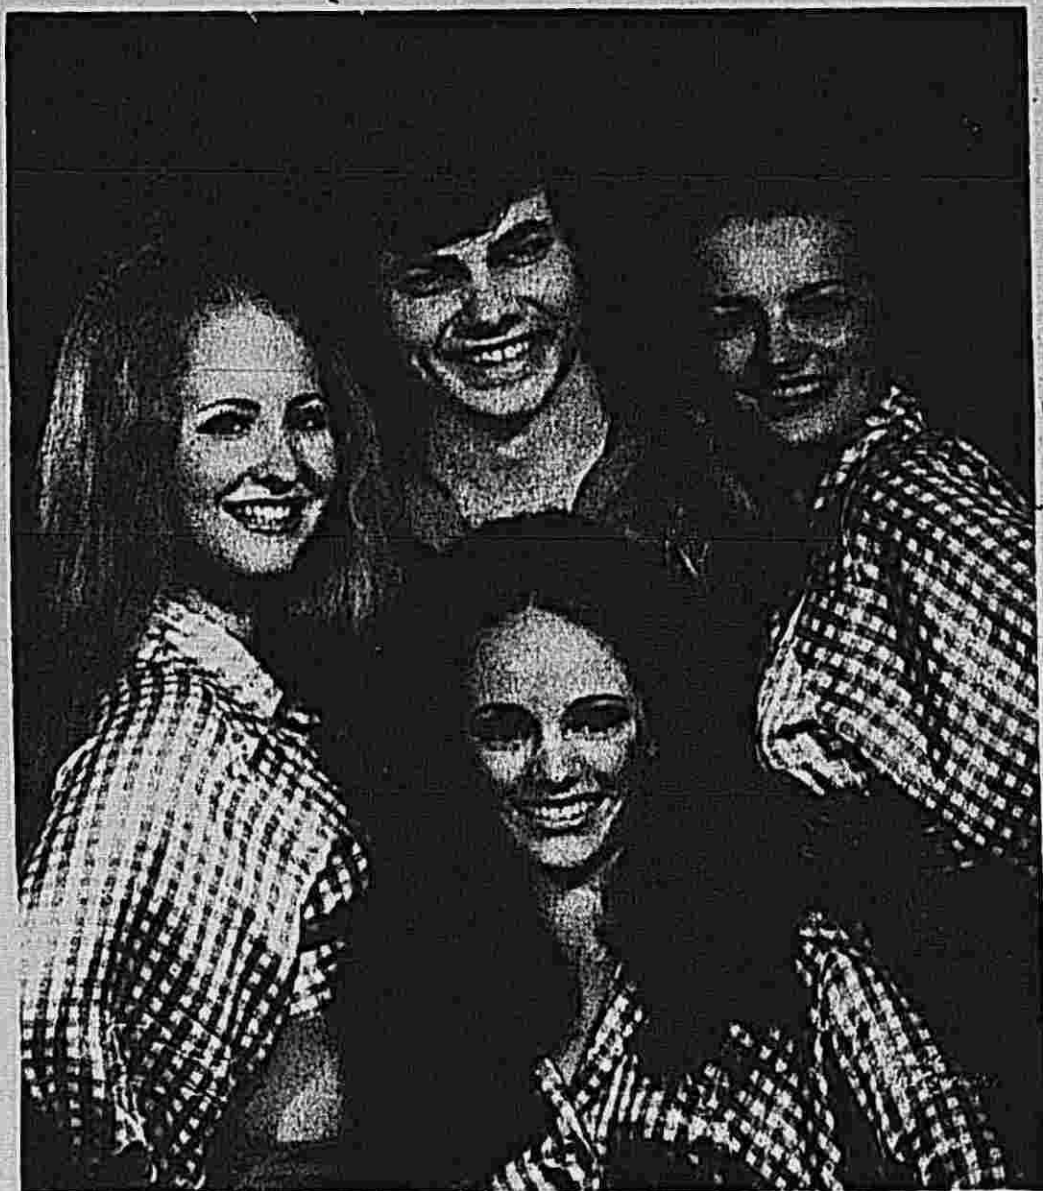

The misunderstanding of the office expense account is only one factor leading to voter suspicion of elected officials. The current affair in Washington named after a particular office-apartment complex is also taking its toll in citizen confidence.

"There is bound to be a degree of reaction on the part of a certain segment of the citizenry who will say, 'Out with everybody; out with the ins,'" explains Berning. He adds that there will always be a certain amount of "blanket indictment of all of us," whenever political scandals are uncovered.

But he does not feel personally threatened by the national affair, explaining that he has always campaigned on a direct person-to-person basis. Referring to suggestions for stringent ethics laws for campaign financing, Berning states that he has always used separate campaign and finance committees, with different chairmen. As a result, the candidate, in Berning's campaigns, has not been involved in handling funds.

The efforts exerted in Berning's campaigns and the study and discussion carried on by him and his small staff are all brought to fruition on the floor of the State Senate and in the committee rooms of that body. Here it is that Berning and his colleagues hammer out the laws that will affect the citizens of all their home districts. The story of how legislation is drawn will be told next week.

LLOYD PEDERSEN AND "DAYBREAK"

Lloyd Pedersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Al Pedersen of Antioch, will soon finish 29 weeks on tour with his singing group, "Lloyd Pedersen and Daybreak."

The group, which was formed by Lloyd and arranger Jack Gillespie in Minneapolis, Minn., almost a year ago, has been performing in supper clubs and lodges in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, and North and South Dakota.

At one time lead vocalist with Wayne King's orchestra, Lloyd will be performing with his 3-girl vocal group and three-member band at the THUNDERBIRD MOTEL in Minneapolis for 6 weeks, starting November 27th and extending through the Christmas and New Year's holidays.

After Thanksgiving week of vacation, in which Lloyd will be home with his family in Antioch, the group starts another year of touring, with recording and concert work in the offering.

Aside from many other spots throughout the Midwest and West, "Lloyd Pedersen and Daybreak" will play the Winnipeg Inn in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada (Jan. 21 - Feb. 9); the Executive Inn in Vincennes, Indiana (Feb. 18 - Mar. 9); the Commercial Hotel in Elko, Nevada (Apr. 1 - 14); and the Eldorado Hotel in Reno (Apr. 23 - May 5).

As of now, the nearest engagements to the Antioch area will be 3 weeks at the Ramada Sands (May 13 - June 1) and 2 weeks at the Ramada Airport (July 1 - 13), both in Milwaukee, but Lloyd hopes to hit the Chicago area soon.

Lloyd was a 1964 graduate of A.C.H.S., a 1968 graduate of Northwestern University, and, along with his work with Wayne King, the Lamplighters Sextet (at the Arlington Park Towers Hotel), and his appearance with Candice Bergen and James Caan in the movie, "T.R. Baskin," he was a teacher in the Chicago Public School System for 3 years.

DAVE EDWARDS TO RECEIVE EAGLE AWARD

David Edwards, 16 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Edwards of Rt. 5 Antioch, has completed all the requirements for the Eagle Scout Award. Last Wednesday, Dave and his parents appeared before an Eagle Scout Board of Review composed of Mayor R. Wilton, Mr. F. Walpole, President of the Antioch Savings and Loan, and Guest Chairman Bruce McDermott of Lindenhurst. Assistant Scoutmaster George Bury, Eagle Board Guest Chairman for the Antioch area acted as Master of Protocol rather than Chairman due to his close relationship to Dave in the Scout Troop.

Dave started in scouting as a Cub Scout in 1965 and continued through Webelos until he joined Troop 92 in August 1968. He passed his Tenderfoot requirements at his first meeting. He then passed 2nd Class in 3-69, 1st Class in 3-70, Star in 8-70, and Life Scout in 11-71. He has held offices of Scribe, Assistant Patrol Leader, Patrol Leader, Assistant Senior Patrol Leader, Senior Patrol Leader, Member of Leadership Corps., and will shortly be affirmed as Junior Assistant Scoutmaster. He underwent Junior Leader Instructor training at Philmont National Scout Reservation in New Mexico in 1972 and is certified to instruct at the Council level. During the previous summer, he served as a counselor at the Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan Scout Reservation, in Antigo, Wisconsin. He is an active member of Lodge 40, Order of the Arrow and holds the Brotherhood Degree. While in Scouting he has participated in many conservation and community activities and has served as Den Chief in Cubs and Webelos for most of his Scouting career.

Recently, after more than a year of study and service he was awarded "The God and Country Award" at a special ceremony conducted by the Reverend Messersmith of Millburn.

Dave has earned the following merit badges: Camping, Cit. in Comm., Cit. in Nation, Con. of Nat., Cooking, First Aid, Life

WHAT WILL YOU GIVE YOUR CHILD?

The best parent can't give his child all the answers. What he can give him is a foundation to grow on—a way to seek out those answers with confidence.

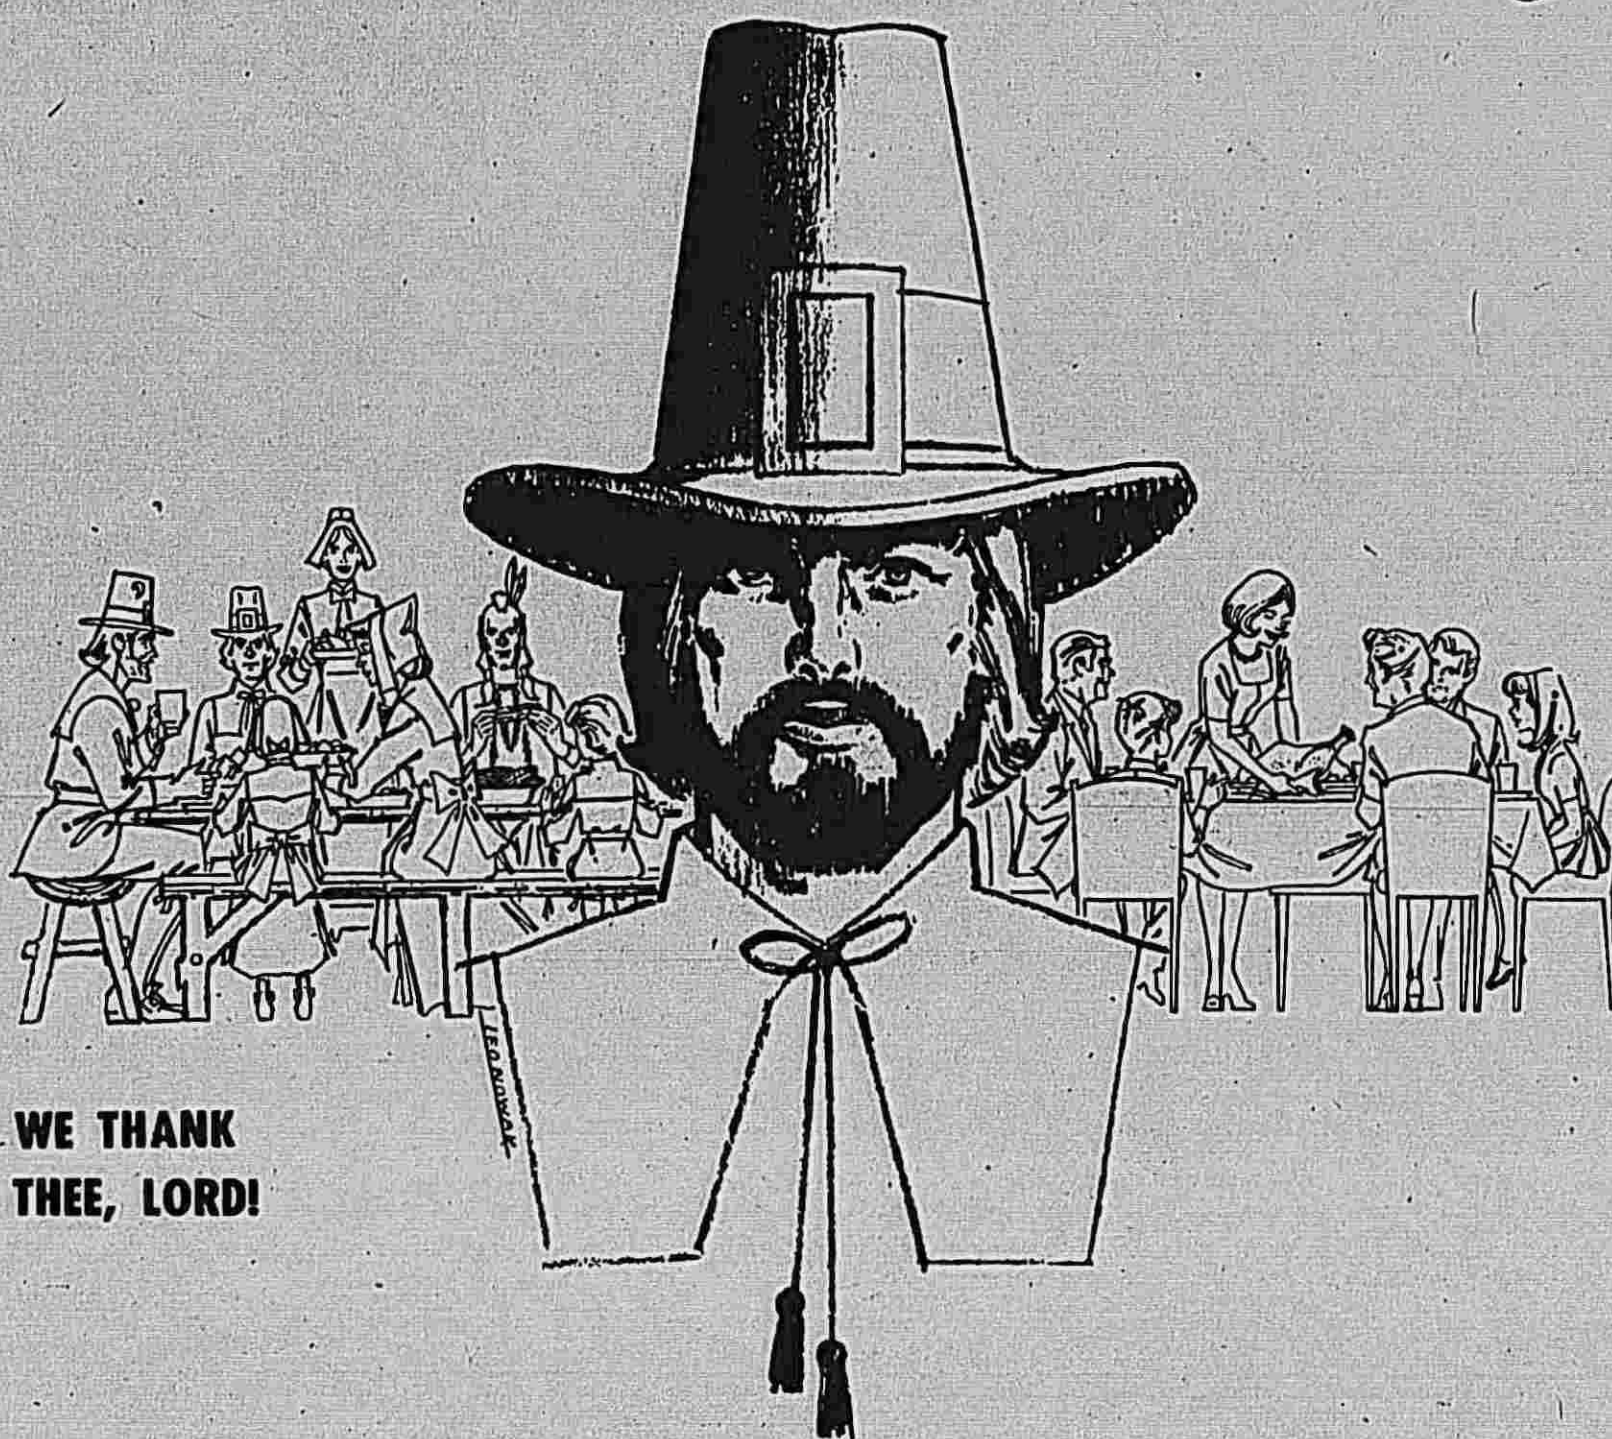

Every week in the Christian Science Sunday School, children discuss with each other, and with adults, exactly how God helps them each day to overcome problems and limitations. It's education of the most practical and lasting kind.

St. Peter's first grader Sylvia Kahler ponders a moment on the meaning of Thanksgiving. (Staff Photo)

Of recipes and things.....

Mrs. Laura Young, music teacher at St. Peter School in Antioch, compiled all these cute little recipes and thoughts about what Thanksgiving is. She told her first and second grade students that she couldn't cook a thing and wouldn't they please help her out with some of their mother's favorite recipes.

St. Peter's also has a first grade rhythm band that is organized every year by Mrs. Young. These youngsters have marched in Antioch's Labor Day parades for the past few years, much to the delight of all the onlookers. The youngsters get much more out of their music class than just learning a few songs - much tender loving care goes into their studies by this lovely lady.

Spread the pan with this much butter. Put the liver in and cook

She has also been a member of the legislature and executive committees of the Illinois Association of Supervisors and county commissioners and of the Midwest Region Advisory Council, Small Business Administration.

In announcing her candidacy Mrs. Reed said, "After the last primary, the first election I ever lost, I said that whatever I did it would be positive, it would be in government, and it would be Republican. That is exactly what I have done: worked with over 300 local units of government in the six northeast and Cook counties. This represents what I believe to be basic Republican philosophy that of bringing government as close as possible to the people."

FLEIDER-SWART NUPTIALS

Dale Andrew Swart, formerly of Twin Lakes, Wisconsin claimed Mariann Frances Fleider as his bride in a candlelight ceremony performed by Rev. Steven Williams of the United Methodist Church in Antioch.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Swart of Twin Lakes, Wisconsin. The bride who was given in marriage by her father is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fleider of Antioch.

Barbara Quean, the bride's sister, was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Cheryl Banser, Karen Kisner and Jennifer Boyd. Angela Quean was a junior bridesmaid. The girls all wore rose velvet dresses and carried bouquets of straw flowers with baby's breath.

The best man was Mr. Lawrence Swart, the groom's father, and groomsmen were Craig Schultz, Earl Ferguson and Don Simmons. Bradley Partlow and George Ferguson were ushers.

The bride wore a dress of white satin trimmed with lace with a full length veil and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Soloists Carla and Sharon Rudy sang Ruth's Song from the Bible.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for 130 guests at the Antioch Country Club.

Mariann is a 1973 graduate of Antioch Community High School and is presently employed by Allstate Insurance in Northbrook. Her husband is a graduate of Salem Central High and is employed by the Davis Construction Company in McHenry.

After a honeymoon somewhere in the South, the young people will make their home in Waukegan.

GARDEN CLUB STUDIES SOKOLARIUMS

The Antioch Garden Club will hold their regular meeting Monday, November 26, 1973, 12:30 p.m., in the First National Bank Building Community Room. Program Study will be Sokolariums by Mr. Alfred Sokolies. Mrs. J. Skinkunas and Mrs. L. Leable will serve as hostesses.

WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

The meeting was called to order by Senior Regent June Ballenger after which there was the balloting of five new candidates. Harriett Grew was chosen to represent the chapter as an honorary Mooseheart High School Graduate, this is a Paul Schmitz Award. Share the Pot was won by Gerry Mark and the attendance drawing was not claimed, as Shirley Baumel was not present. Remember Co workers must be present to win. The Senior Regent once again stressed how important it is for the membership drive to keep on rolling and to fill the quota for the year along with filling the heart.

Calendar of Events: Dec 6th-Social Service Chapter Nite; Dec. 12-Officers Meeting at Senior Regent June Ballenger's home at 7:30 p.m.; Dec. 13th-Christmas Party Pot Luck at 6:30 p.m.; Dec. 16th-Childrens Annual Christmas

SLEEP-IN AT PM&L

Time is running out. Wake up and make your reservations to see "Rip Van Winkle" at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main Street in Antioch, before all eight performances are sold out, as some already are. The Thanksgiving weekend performances, already substantially subscribed, are sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce. These are set for 2:30 and 7 p.m. Saturday, November 24, and a 2:30 matinee the next day, Sunday the 25th. Other performances are scheduled for Saturdays and Sundays, December 1, 2, 8, and 9. There will be 2:30 matinees on those dates (the December 9 matinee is already sold out) and a 7 p.m. evening performance on the 9th. Tickets for the Thanksgiving shows will be given out by Santa Claus himself.

Directed by Valerie Hunley, the PM&L production has a large and varied cast. The title role is played remarkably and sympathetically by Josef Hunley, whose stellar performance is reminiscent of the days when Joe Jefferson was Rip Van Winkle. Legend has it that when his beard fell off during one performance, Mehitabel, the theater cat, wrapped herself around his neck and played his beard for the rest of the scene. Other PM&L veterans in the cast include Pam Hill, the sex bomb of "The Paisley Convertible," as Dame Van Bummel, and Carolyn Blanchette, who literally stopped the show in "The Solid Gold Cadillac," as Dame Van Shaick. Gerri Duncan, who is Dame Van Winkle, Rip's shrewish wife, is so much of a veteran that she was in PM&L's first children's show nine years ago. Newcomers in the cast include many young people, like Dave Lagerstrom and Steve Sander, now in their first play. Other youngsters, like George Ramsey, Robinette Hunley, and Nancy Springer are already old-timers on the stage. And many will admit that it has been a long time since they have seen a more sinister and frightening mountain king than Phil Schwartz, who plays Hendrick Hudson.

Many have long regarded "Rip Van Winkle" as a true story of upper New York at the Time of the American Revolution. If it was not true, the colonial Dutch have pointed out, how else could it have happened? Clearly, you should not permit the hair on your chin to grow much longer before you call 395-9702 for your reservations. If a crackly old voice answers, it may already be too late.

Well, Thanksgiving is upon us, and the time to stop and reflect on all that we have to be thankful for. We people of The Antioch News want to say a big "Happy Thanksgiving" to all of you wonderful readers. Eat lots of turkey and be sure to say a prayer before the meal.

Have you seen the lovely display taking shape in the old John Teresi building on Main Street? It just may give the townfolk a chance to see what Antioch does manufacture.

Parties, Parties, parties - Hear the St. Peter Thanksgiving Dinner-Dance that was held at Lorenz's last Saturday night was a HUGE success and the food was good and everyone stayed to the wee hours of the morning.

Marian Prange also hosted a social evening on Saturday night. She belongs to an organization called "Basics" which is made up of single people of all ages, be they widowed, divorced, or just plain single. Normally they meet in the Libertyville Evangelical Free Church but this month Marian hosted a pot luck dinner in her home. Following a delicious dinner, the group sang and generally had a good time.

Don't forget that Santa arrives at Noon on Saturday, November 24 via a fire truck (don't see any snow) and he will be at the Rescue Squad building until 6 p.m.

Dan and Willie Kasik and their "tribe" have recently moved into their new home on Hillside. That's an exciting time. Lots of love and luck in your new home.

The St. Peter Ladies Altar and Rosary Society is busy working on their Christmas Bazaar which will be held on December 8 and 9 in the lower level of the Church. This Bazaar is open to the public and is a good place to look for that gift for "the one who has everything." Bazaar hours are from 9 - 9 on the 8th and 9 - 2 on the 9th. There will be lots of homemade treasures.

A couple of anniversaries we want to remember are for Jim and Ethel Herman who celebrated 28 Years on November 13 and Otto and Florence Hanke who celebrated 34 years on the 13th also. Thirteen being their lucky number, Otto brightened the day even more by having thirteen beautiful roses delivered to add to the joyous occasion. Happy Anniversaries also go to Virginia and Bud Howard on the 23rd and to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pettigrew on the 19th.

A very, very special happy birthday to a fine young man who always has a smile and hello to everyone. The young people who spent so much time up at the pool this summer are sure to wish him the best - along with us - so Happy Birthday MICKEY HAWKINS who celebrated on the 19th. Lots of birthdays coming up this week also begin with Bill Dow on the 23rd; and Dick Harland, Rose Kennedy, Kay Schaeffer, on the 24th; to Lorraine Lemke on the 25th, and to Christian DeYoung who will be 82 years young on the 25th. A special wish goes to Lori Rush who will be 12 on the 26th and to Marge Pahlke who also celebrates on the 26th. And last but not least Florence Eckert has her special day on the 27th. Happy birthday to all.

Get well wishes to Blaine Ring who recently underwent surgery and to brave little Julie Gutowski who had her tonsils out. Also glad to hear that Vene Cermak is on the road to recovery.

Home for the holidays will be Rich Prange and his family from Merrill Wisconsin and Sherri from DeKalb. Also Laurie Good and Ron Ozga and Rick Nelson and Glen Amund-

Royal Neighbors held their meeting on November 13, 1973 at the American Legion Hall. The Pledge of Allegiance was said by all and then the Oracle thanked everyone for making sen are among those home from college for Thanksgiving. The Bernie Gutowski's are planning to spend Thanksgiving with the Joe Gutowski's in Channel Lake.

Lorraine Kennedy had a wonderful birthday surprise. Her daughter Pat and husband Dave Kraninger came all the way from MacMurray, Penn. to wish mother a happy birthday at 3 in the morning. What better gift!!!

Have a happy Thanksgiving.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS VISIT SHULTIS DOLLS

our card party such a huge success. The charter was then draped for our deceased members Nellie Ray and Addie Zimmerman, also it was announced that Pearl Anderson is in the Victory Hospital. Hurry and Get Well Pearl. We Miss You.

The Birthday Girl for the month was Alice Fritch and also we had a Wedding Anniversary Celebration for our gal Leona Eppers. Congratulations to both of you.

ABC'S OF TRAVEL

Military Fares

Most airlines provide reserved seats at reduced rates and standby at still lower rates to military personnel who can prove they are on active duty and otherwise qualified. It is no longer required to be in uniform while traveling on military rates. Reservations may be made well in advance and also a ticket may be purchased in advance with an open date. R & R (Military rest and recuperation) fares to Hawaii are for military personnel and dependents on leave from Viet Nam service. There are also economy excursion fares from the continental U.S. to Hawaii for parents and spouses of such personnel on leave. Rental cars and hotels may also be obtained at great discounts. Check with your Travel Agent for full details.

Many times the fellows receive their notice to report to such and such base but never tell you exactly where it is. Your Travel Agent has a complete alphabetical listing of all military installations located in the United States. Each listing includes the approximate mileage and direction from the nearest airport to the installation. This listing also includes information pertaining to specific bus-rail-limo service available directly from the airport to the installation. Also base transportation and general base telephone number.

So before you make a lot of unnecessary long distance phone calls, see your Travel Agent.

LAKE COUNTY HEALTH IMPROVEMENT ASSO. MEETS

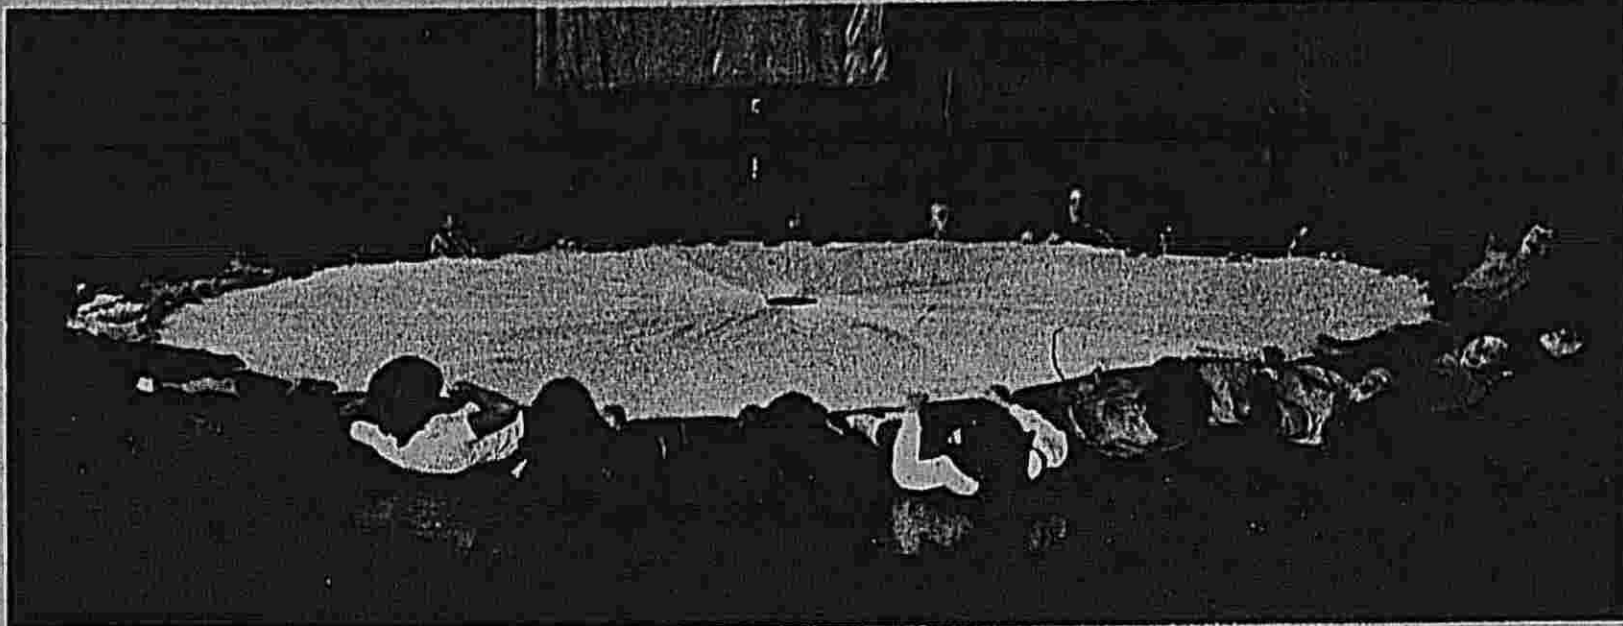

The Lake County Health Improvement Association held their annual meeting Tuesday evening November 13th at the Farm Bureau.

The entire incumbent slate of officers and directors were re-elected to serve yet another year. They include Raymond Flood, Libertyville, president; Harry H. Stern, Antioch, vice president; Joseph Geier, Gurnee, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Kenneth Denman, Lake Villa; Earl Peglow, Prairie View; Florence Piacenza, Highland Park; Wilford Pearce, Zion; Warren Reese, Grayslake, directors.

William E. Brook, Antioch banker, was elected to the board of directors for the Antioch area. Brook is a new board member.

Included in the agenda was the decision to continue financial aid to volunteer rescue squads in the county in 1974. This plan was begun in 1973 with the Antioch, Lake Villa, Fox Lake, Gurnee, Winthrop Harbor, and Wauconda rescue squads receiving over $2000 in needed equipment. Harry Stern was chairman of this committee in 1973 and will continue in that post in 1974.

The P.E. classes at Antioch Grade School have a new piece of equipment, courtesy of the school's PTA. Called "The Parachute," it is precisely that, with no strings attached. Here, the students in one class stretch out and do sit-ups under the parachute. In other exercises, done to the accompaniment of a record, the cloth is rippled in the air with various degrees of vigor, allowing the students to put arm and leg muscles to use. Students appear to be enthused with the new equipment. (Staff Photo)

ST. THERESE ELIMINATES UNNECESSARY ENERGY USES

St. Therese Hospital is cooperating with the statement by President Nixon on the national fuel problem. Dr. R.M. "We are asking visitors and patients alike to be cognizant of the fact that this cooperation is necessary in order to conserve energy that would allow our resources to catch up with our demands."

Bite from Barb

By: Barb Olson

The Taming of the Shrew was performed last Friday and Saturday night in the ACHS auditorium. After many rehearsals, which consisted of weeks of hard work, the cast had its opening night Friday at eight that evening.

There was a large audience for both performances and the play was enjoyed by all. The costumes consisted of long dresses for the girls, and the boys were outfitted in tights along with their apparel that coincided with their individual parts in the play.

The cast performed well and the play lasted until about 10:20 p.m. Two girls were presented with roses at the end of the play by two of their cast members.

Last Friday the first nine weeks report cards were distributed. Report cards will come out again after Christmas vacation, which mark the end of the first semester. The honor rolls will be posted at school in a few days. To make the low honor roll a student needs a "B" average of a 4.00 and no grade lower than a "C". To make the high honor roll at 4.50 average is needed, and no grade lower than a "B".

Thanksgiving vacation starts at ACHS on Wednesday at 3 o'clock p.m. Classes will resume as usual on Monday morning. Thanksgiving vacation also means the Barrington basketball tournament. Antioch will play at Barrington Wednesday night.

Tom-Tom is expected to come out with its second issue this week. This issue will contain: Homecoming write-ups, sports news, play features, feature stories, and this month's roving reporter's question, "What are you thankful for this Thanksgiving?"

"Hindsight's Better Than Foresight"

By Father Keusal

Today in the age of the jet set, with ships going to the moon, pollution taking over the earth, the energy crisis, injustice to minority group and Jesus Christ reigning as Superstar, Antioch with the rest of the nation, enters again into our American Holidays. Our thoughts in all probability turn to the material wealth of our nation.

It seems that the youth of the nation are becoming aware more and more of people. They are coming to the conclusion that perhaps we ought to share ourselves and not our material wealth.

We can share all the material wealth that we have, share our wealth with all the peoples of the earth but if we don't share ourselves, we are the most miserable people in the world. Our wealth has closed us in on ourselves. We've forgotten how to share the most precious possession we have - ourselves. We've forgotten how to love and be loved.

Love can effect the solution of our problems. But we must face the fact that to be loved, we must become lovable. When a person orients his life toward the satisfaction of his own need, when he goes out to seek the love which he needs, no matter how we soften our judgement of him, he is self centered. He is not lovable, even if he deserves our compassion. He is concentrating on himself and as long as he continues to concentrate on himself his ability to love will always remain stunted and he himself will remain a perennial infant. If however he is a person who seeks not to receive love but rather, to give it, he will become lovable and will most certainly be loved in the end.

Certainly our Country has learned that it is a law of human nature, as certain as gravity, to live fully we must learn to use things and love people - not love things and use people.

SENIOR CITIZENS, DISABLED GRANTED TAX REBATE

are eligible and if the nursing home is subject to property tax.

The purpose of the legislation is to provide an incentive for senior citizens and disabled people to acquire and maintain private housing (rented or owned) of their choice. It also protects these people on fixed incomes from the burden of constantly rising property tax.

The amount of the grant will depend on the amount of tax or rent paid and the total household income. The grant is determined by the amount of property taxes or 25 percent of rent paid in excess of 6 percent of income up to $3,000, plus 7 percent of income over $3,000. The maximum grant is limited to $500, less $5 for each $100 of income.

According to Antioch Grade School Superintendent Henry Meyer, when the law was enacted $30 million was appropriated to pay the grants. Meyer added that recent reports he has received indicate that about $14 million of this amount has yet to be claimed.

representation of the 32nd District in the Illinois General Assembly. There are many issues which in my opinion have not received adequate emphasis in the state legislature. But more important, our representation has not reflected the concern of the people of this district. I want to know what the people of the 32nd District feel is the order of priority on the issues affecting them at the state government level. That is why I'll take action to represent them. That way we'll know what the people of the districts are thinking and what they want from their representatives in Springfield. Isn't that what being a representative of the 32nd District is all about?"

construction and equipment costs. In addition, once a center is in operation, the State Division of Vocational and Technical Education will reimburse it for 40 to 50 percent of the actual operating costs, according to Pilotte. The participating districts would split the remaining costs of operating, depending on the number of students each sends to the center.

As an example of the savings possible, it has been pointed out that if a school buys a piece of equipment costing $1,000 for its vocational program now, the local district bears the full $1,000. If the same piece of equipment were purchased for an area center, the State would pay $600, and the participating districts would share the remaining $400, at a cost of about $30 per district.

Planning for a Lake County Area Vocational Center has been under way in earnest for over a year, prompted largely by the fact that there has been a waiting list of students wanting to get into the cooperative program at Waukegan High School for several years. The basis of the study consisted of two surveys, one of students in every high school in the county, the other of businesses and industry throughout the county. These surveys indicate that not only are there thousands of students keenly interested in the programs that an area center could offer, but jobs would be available for them at the completion of their schooling in the 17 fields chosen for tentative offering at the center.

Within three weeks the small staff at the County Superintendent's office that has been directing the planning will know whether their efforts have been successful. A simple majority of the total vote in all of the participating districts combined is all that is needed to impose the new tax, which is limited by law to a maximum of five years. However, any district may elect not to participate in the program if the proposition does not carry in its area.

No organized opposition to the proposal has surfaced; however, Pilotte says that the normal objection to higher taxes can be expected to produce a certain number of negative votes on December 8.

The issue seems to boil down to whether Lake County property owners are willing to invest a slightly increased amount of local taxes in order to qualify for a substantial amount of State aid for improved vocational education.

ORDER STAMPS BY MAIL FOR CHRISTMAS

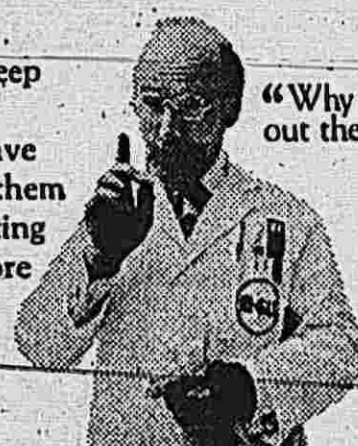

Antioch Postmaster Walter Barnas said he anticipated a big increase in the number of stamps by mail orders as the Christmas mail season approaches.

"A lot of people are going to prefer ordering stamps by mail to going to the post office to purchase stamps," Postmaster Barnas said. "Most orders come from persons whose work schedules precludes trips to the post office, shut-ins, the infirm, and small businesses," he said. "However, we expect people of all ages and situations to write in for stamps during the Christmas rush," he said.

He reminded customers that they may order one of more of the following:

Roll of 100 eight-cent stamps.....	$8.00
Sheet of 100 eight-cent stamps.....	$8.00
Two-books-of-eight-cent stamps.....	$4.00
One book of eleven-cent and two books of eight-cent stamps.....	$5.00

Storm doors and windows not only keep heat in, they reduce drafts and keep windows from sweating. You don't have them? In the long run, you'll pay for them in savings resulting from reduced heating costs. And in the short run, enjoy more uniform and comfortable home heating. And help save gas for the future.

out the window?"

SEQUOITS SEEK THIRD CONSECUTIVE CROWN AT BARRINGTON

The Antioch High School basketball team will be seeking its third championship in a row tonight, when it meets Elgin Larkin in the opening round of the annual Barrington Turkey Classic. Game time Wednesday night is 7:00 p.m. The sophomore teams will tangle at 5:00.

Varsity coach Roger Andrews pointed out that Antioch has won the tournament for the past two years. "We would very much like to win again," he said, adding that Antioch and Elgin Larkin are the two teams favored for the top spot.

Other schools participating in the tourney are Cary Grove and the host team from Barrington. Since this is a round robin tournament, each team will play on each of the three days, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Antioch's remaining games are set for Friday evening at 7:00 against Cary Grove and Saturday evening at 8:30 against Barrington.

Probable starting line-up for Wednesday's game, according to Andrews, will be: Mike Gutowski (6'3"), Vic McGuire (6'2"), Mark Andrews (6'3"), Mike Perrone (6'2"), and Russ Albano (6'3"). Also pegged for early action are: Kevin Walpole, Mike Witt and Bob Bailey.

BOARD CUTS REFERENDUM REQUEST

Board, in September, temporarily shelved its plans for a building program referendum. But to meet the immediate financial needs of the district, a new referendum request was deemed necessary.

If a tax rate increase is not approved before January 1, 1974, additional funds would not be available before the 1975-76 school year, at the earliest.

The last time that the tax rate for the district was adjusted was in 1966. School officials say they are having difficulty meeting 1974 expenses with 1966 tax rates.

Asked what would happen if the increase is not passed December 1, Meyer responded that the programs could not be re-instated. The district, he indicated, could meet the higher costs due to inflation next year because of the reassessment. However, he declined to project that any further, saying that the economy at present is too unpredictable.

Meyer also commented that the district's indebtedness could not be significantly reduced without the additional tax monies. The deficit in the Education and Building Operation Funds currently stands at more than $210,000.

Backers of the referendum are not planning a high-powered publicity campaign, saying that this would be too costly. Instead, they say that they plan to approach people on a person-to-person basis, seeking support for the tax rate increase.

In addition to about 20 couples presently working on the project, some members of the teachers' association have volunteered their services.

Supt. Meyer emphasized that information concerning school finances is open to anyone who wishes to come in and see it. Any questions concerning the referendum, he said, will be answered.

SCHOOL MILK PRICE QUESTIONED

cutting down the space for the library. The two proposals presented were (A) a total cost of $143,000, $110,000 of which can be interpreted as life-safety working leaving $33,000 as actual construction cost; and (B) a total cost for construction and demolition of $130,000 (this figure was not broken down as to life-safety work). The Board decided this work would be considered at a future meeting.

In other action, the Board approved the ESEA Science Proposal (the environmental program) as written by Mrs. Kern. Supt. Meyer also pointed out that teachers are entitled to sick leave pay during pregnancy. And as for the Energy Crisis, the Board decided to comply by lowering the temperature in all the schools from 71 to 70.

buyers will be opened at the December 3 meeting.

Two proposed amendments to the Village liquor sale ordinance were presented by Trustee Marge Nelson. One, which allows Class A license holders to remain open until 2 a.m. on weekdays and 3 a.m. on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, for an additional fee of $100 a year, was approved. The other was tabled for further study, on the request of Irv Walsh.

Building Inspector Walt Delaney asked for and received permission to issue the remainder of the permit for construction of the addition to the A&P store in the Orchard Shopping Plaza.

Mrs. Lillian Burnette, 917 David Street, reminded the trustees that they had agreed to look into the traffic and parking problems around St. Peter's Church and School. Mike Haley reported that the situation is still under study by the police department.

With that, the Board ran out of business and adjourned.

EVALUATIONS CONCERN HIGH SCHOOL BOARD

during the course of the meeting. Attorney Ted Larson pointed out that even if it fails, in all of the districts but one by a slim margin, but it passes in the remaining district by a larger margin, the referendum will have passed since this is determined by a cumulative number of votes. Of course, he pointed out, if only a few districts will fund this project, the building would have to be scaled down proportionately. He also reminded the Board members that if a district does not aid in the funding for the center, it cannot send students there to learn.

Other business of interest brought up included discussion of the energy crisis. The temperature in each classroom is now 68, and in the teachers' lounge it's 66. Also, there are two new voter registrars at the school -- Ken Wierschem and Gary Allen. Students who are 18 can register at school now, as well as the public.

Choose the machine the "Red Nites" use

High performance, rugged design, precision handling, outstanding maneuverability and mile-after-mile comfort. That's what the "Red Nites" want. That's what you get when you go Ski Whiz!

SKI WHIZ

great handling!

made by a great company

They give their sleds a terrific pounding, so they need a design that's rugged and reliable. But they also need a snowmobile capable of giving them the precision control they require for their split-second-timed maneuvers.

The only snowmobile they ever use is Ski Whiz.

The "Red Nites" are a crack, precision drill team. Five super-skilled snowmobile drivers who perform complex high-speed maneuvers at winter carnivals and snowmobile races throughout North America.
